

1 July 1959 - 1830-1900 GMT

21600 kcs Radio Free Europe, Lisbon, in Rumanian (50 kw).
Talk on recent Rumanian trade agreements with Western countries. Included no English.

21610 kcs Voice of America in English to North Africa (for Tangier relay) (110 kw). Program: "Listener's Log," describing opening of Soviet exhibit in New York and including speeches by Nixon and Koslov.

21620 kcs Radio Free Europe, Lisbon, in Czech (50 kw). "Medical Messages," a doctor answers listeners' queries followed by a commentary on Gomulka's seven-year plan in Poland.
Included no English.

21630 kcs BBC, London, in Arabic beamed to the Middle East (100 kw).
No English.

21640 kcs BBC, London, in English; General Overseas Service, program "My Word," a panel show featuring a word game.

21650 kcs Armed Forces Radio & Television Service (US) beamed to Europe in English (50 kw). Program: "Panorama," a potpourri of music and features similar to NBC's "Monitor" show and including some material from it. The 1 July show, running from 1715-1900 GMT, included these features: Report from Copenhagen on SAS airline; talk with a Tulsa oil rigger; interview with two actors;
interview with Japanese passenger loader on transpolar flights; band concert from Spain; NBC interview with a loan shark; NBC interview by Patty Kavan with Celeste Holm; and NBC program from the Bronx Zoo.

21665 kcs Radio Free Europe, Lisbon, in Hungarian (50 kw).
"Portrait of a Translator," translations of British and American poems into Hungarian by Lorincz Szabo.